Disbursements will include Court fees – we will advise you in relation to these.

In the Small Claims Court the ordinary rule is that each party bears its own costs other than the Claimant being able to claim back from the other side, if the Claimant is successful, the fixed court fees and very small fixed sum in relation to solicitors fees.

If the value of the claim is worth more than £10,000 (or involves Statutory Demand) there may be an entitlement to greater costs but that would have to be discussed depending upon the circumstances.
